General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018 Consent Form

The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018 strengthens data protection for individuals and means we need to tell you what personal data Hadara keep, why we keep it, what we do with it and what your rights are.

When you joined Hadara, we requested the following information (personal data) from you, in order to verify your eligibility for joining the association and to add you to our membership contact list once you successfully became a member.

Title	Postal Address
Surname	D.O.B
Forenames	Phone number
Known as	Mobile number
Email	Are you retired

We continue to keep your personal data, in order to administer our association and its activities. Currently, the data is held securely by the membership secretary only.

Lists of just the names and contact details, may be shared with serving committee members/role holders to facilitate contact, (e.g. Friends in Need). The information we hold is never shared with anyone outside Hadara.

You have the right to see the information we hold, to amend it or to withdraw it. If you cease to be a member, we cease to process the data. You have the right to be forgotten and all of your data can be completely erased, if you request it.

If you wish to see or change the personal data that we hold about you, please apply in writing to the Membership Secretary, address given below, who will provide the information to you, within 30 days.

As a member of a social association you should have a reasonable expectation that photographs will be taken at many Hadara events and activities. Any photographs taken may appear in the Hadara Diary, Hadara Noticeboard, Hadara Website or in a Kentara publication, without further consent being requested.

Hadara's full Data Protection Policy is available on our website at www.hadara.org.uk/DataProtectionPolicy.
