Congratulations to Ann & Brian Hayward of HALARA on their Diamond Wedding Anniversary 60 Years.

In August two of our members of long standing, Ann & Brian Hayward, celebrated their Diamond Wedding Anniversary.

 On the actual day they celebrated with their family, and the following day Gill Morton & Ann Seager organised a High Tea at Gill's house for Ann & Brian, and invited a few members to mark this very special occasion.

Social distancing was observed and everyone enjoyed the event.

Brian spent many years in the merchant navy.

We have provisionally booked the Thanks Giving Service at Rochester Cathedral, for 🖈 ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ October 2021, and the Area 11 team is organising this. Thank you. Something I think we all need.

('The Gang of Two', prior to 'The Rule of Six' at a 'Socially Distanced' Small Wedding of Thirty.)

Fred Olsen have sent to everyone who have booked the Cruise to the Norwegian Fjords on st \mathbf{x} the Boudicca, and advised us, that we will now be transferred to a new ship, called the Bolette; a beautiful larger ship, named after Fred Olsen's Jr's Great, Great, Grandmother -★ so very exciting. Fred Olsen are honouring our original price, and the cabins, sound so good. We hope to get a new flyer soon, with a new booking form.

Metropolitan Police and other parties. The data included "gender, age, postcode, websites $\frac{1}{2}$ visited, time of day text is sent [and] location of customer when call is made". When $\overset{\frown}{\sim}$ confronted by the newspaper, the Metropolitan Police indicated that they would not be ☆ taking the discussions any further. Ipsos MORI defended their actions, stressing that the ☆ company only received anonymised data, without any personally identifiable data on an ☆ individual customer, and underlining that reports are only ever made on aggregated ☆ groups of more than 50 customers.[12][13][14]

WILD GOOSE CHASE

Noel Cowards 'Blithe Spirit' at Medway Little Theatre was such a difficult act to follow.

☆ I am not a fan of farce but have to acknowledge the energy, and acting ability of all the $\stackrel{\frown}{\simeq}$ \mathbf{x} actors in bringing 'Wild Goose Chase' it to the stage. $\frac{1}{2}$

There were no awkward pauses or prompting; the timing was excellent as were the very $\overset{\frown}{\Delta}$ complex entries and exits. The players were well cast, and performed their parts with \star 2 gusto, and enthusiasm. \mathbf{x}

 \mathbf{x} The scenery was well chosen. The occasion was well supported by different ARA's as ☆ a shared open event, and from comments I overheard, we would like to come again, but ☆ perhaps not to see this type of comedic genre. ☆

Thank you to Ethel of Nuthatch (NutAra), for sharing this picture with us.

Ethel recommends puzzles by Jan Van Haasteren, Mike Jupp, and WASGIJ.

Apparently they are all funny, and in a cartoon format. However, as can be expected under ☆ the circumstances, they don't seem to be able to manufacture these jigsaw artists puzzles $\overset{\frown}{\mathbf{x}}$ fast enough at the moment to meet the worldwide demand.

Ethel says a 1000 piece puzzle takes about a week of casual attention from two people to finish. One in every 500 pieces ends up on the floor, so that at the end, you are two pieces 🖕 missing. Neither piece is likely to travel more than 2 metres away from the sitter, unless it 🖈 has been vacuumed up, in which case you're stuffed. When the puzzle is complete it is very sensible to put all the pieces in a large grip seal bag. Ethel marks her bag with a permanent marker, and the words, 'PANDEMIC 2020 with the full date'. Thanks for the memory! Ed.

Thanks to Ethel, I have looked into the idea of providing members with the opportunity of 🖈 sharing these puzzles via the post. However, with each piece being handled multiple times, along with the risk of the odd piece, or two going permanently missing, and the disappointment of doing a jigsaw puzzle to then find a piece missing at the end; the idea has been scuppered.

A closely contested match between two sides, equally ill prepared to kick a ball around for 9 minutes, to say nothing of 90 minutes.

This was not helped by the 23 minutes of injury time played before the Referee, a Mr Patrick \mathbf{x} Philpott, realised that his watch battery had gone flat.

At half time the 2 -2 score line saw all to play for in the second half.

The full-time score was 3 -3, with the winning goal being thundered in the back of the net ☆ 🖈 in injury time, by a spectacular overhead kick from Charlie Kneebone of Ara's Wanderers, \mathbf{x} from a ball headed off the crossbar by Ara centre forward, Arthur Pinto. ☆

Two mounted Police horses helped escort the Referee off the pitch, against a backdrop of irate 'Dover Dainties' supporters, who were vigorously pointing at their wrists with their \mathbf{x} index fingers, amongst other patriotic gestures. ☆ ☆

Next Match: AWAY to Bat House United, at 'The Roost' Ground.

Two short break holidays have been enjoyed; one in Cardiff during late October, \star and the second one in February to Caernarfon, where a full coach load of members managed to avoid 'Storm Dennis', and enjoyed plenty of sightseeing \mathbf{x} with convivial company.

The next short break is a little further afield when we venture to Paris for another busy few days, including a visit to Monet's gardens. All these trips are courtesy of 'Edwards Coaches'- who are just first class.

Plenty of entertaining evenings have taken place, including a party with 'Paul Cantara' who imitates so many of the well-known pop stars, including the late Freddie Mercury, and Elvis, to name just two.

There have been varied speakers, and entertainers for the monthly meetings, and in January we held the yearly auction of unwanted gifts, and items to raise funds for our favourite charity, namely the 'Kent Surrey and Sussex Air Ambulance'.

Members have enjoyed some excellent Plays at the local theatres, plus a most enjoyable Pantomime at 'The Bob Hope Theatre' in Eltham.

HexARA are lucky to have a very dedicated committee who all work hard to $\frac{1}{2}$ provide plenty of events to keep everyone happy.

We are looking to return to the Pilot Inn for lunch, and then onto 'Dobbies' for some retail therapy.

In July we have our summer holiday to Warners Corton.

Y Our weekly line dancing classes are going well, as well as our Kurling sessions.

Monthly meetings are also well attended with singer one month, then a speaker the following month.

2020 Vision

Last year, we prepared another busy list of activities and outings. Pantomime, Greyhound racing, Musicals, Theatre trips, Concerts, and an air show at Duxford were all enjoyed. We witnessed the Venetian Festival in Hythe, and also visited Longleat to see the fantastic light show.

A number of members ventured to Cyprus for some culture, sun and some ouzo.

We travelled to the Normandy beaches to see the places where so many laid down their  $\frac{1}{2}$ lives. We learnt a little history with a tour of our local estate - Cobham Hall, and we  $\frac{1}{2}$ visited Amberley Museum to see the history of days gone by.

Our social activities continued to be enjoyed by many, Keep Fit, Line Dancing, Walking,  $\frac{1}{2}$ Ten Pin Bowling, Petanque, Canasta, Table Tennis, and a Dance Club. We are lucky in  $\frac{1}{2}$ the fact that every month we invaded a restaurant, and pub for enjoyable lunches, and  $\frac{1}{2}$ evening meals which were appreciated by many.

Our association generously supported our chosen charity of the year, Parkinson's UK, by raising £2810.00, and the cheque was presented to them at our April AGM.

As the end of the year approached, we sang Carols, attended our Christmas Lunch, and then saw the New Year in with fun and frolics. It was a memorable year.

We look forward to 2020, and hope we continue to prosper.
