

SHEPHERD NEAME BREWERY, FAVERSHAM

(Britain's Oldest Brewer – since 1698)

on THURSDAY 15th AUGUST 2024

We leave Hartley by 9.45 and travel to the Shepherd Neame Brewery for a guided tour of the brewery. On arrival we will have Tea/Coffee and biscuits before embarking on the tour. Members with mobility issues will have a visual guided tour, along with commentary from a Guide.

After the tour we will have a tutored tasting of Shepherd Neame's Kentish Ales and Lager followed by a two-course lunch of Spitfire Sausages and Mash with Spitfire Onion Gravy and Bread and Butter Pudding.

After leaving the Brewery there will be time to wander around Faversham, with the coach leaving there at 4.30 p.m.

The cost of £59.00 is inclusive of coach, Coffee/Tea, Tour with tasting and lunch

A Deposit of £20 will secure your place.
