THURSDAY 7th August 2025

Buckingham Palace 2025

State Apartments Self-Guided Visit & Two Course Lunch with Coffee

Visit the Most Important Room in Buckingham Palace.

In 2025, for the first time the 1844 Room will be opened for visitors to Buckingham Palace. This is where the monarch receives their most distinguished guests for private audiences or even an intimate meal, where the late Queen often recorded the Christmas Day Queen's Speech. It is also where the Monarch holds meetings of the Privy Council - that very British tradition that dates back to Norman times. For centuries, anyone leaving the room after the Privy Council Meeting was expected to bow or curtsy and then walk backwards until they are out of the door but that's now been banned for 'ealth and safety'.

The cost of this trip is £70, which includes the Palace entrance fee, luxury coach and a two-course lunch at Kennedys

We will leave Hartley by 10.30am and head for lunch at 12.00 noon and after lunch take the coach to Buckingham Palace for the afternoon. We would aim to leave around 6.00pm

A deposit of £20 will secure your place

Organisers Jim Silvester and Linda Lewis
